Mission

Trips

For the past four years New Orleans Mission Trips have been taken to New Orleans LA to work with the people of Bethlehem Lutheran Church to help them rebuild their homes in the aftermath of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita. This congregation has been very appreciative of our efforts and continue to recover.

In the summer of 2009, 36,000 young people and adults attended the ELCA Youth Gathering in New Orleans and helped to bring hope to the people of this city. This summer of 2010 it is our intent to make a concerted effort to make two trips to New Orleans with youth and adults with skills to continue this effort.

If there are youth and adults in your congregation that are looking for a mission trip that is low cost, a way to help others, and a great time...consider

New Orleans Mission Trips

Downtown New Orleans

Pastors Paul and Lil Johnston and Trinity Lutheran Church in Sioux City, IA are sponsoring two Mission Trips to New Orleans to help continue the rebuilding of homes in the aftermath of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita of 2005.

Last summer 36,000 youth and adults attended the ELCA Youth

Gathering and helped to bring hope to this city. The purpose of these trips is to gather youth and adults with skills to continue the work that has begun. We will be working with Bethlehem Lutheran Church in New Orleans.

During each of the two trips, June 15-22 and August 3-10, 2010, we will travel by van two days, work for three days, worship with the community at Bethlehem on Sunday and tour New Orleans and drive home in two days. We would be gone a total of eight days.

The cost will be $150-$175 to cover gas for the vans and food while we are in New Orleans. Each person would also pay for an overnight stay in a motel on the trip to and from and meals while on the road. While in New Orleans we stay at Bethlehem Lutheran Church at no cost.
