

Grace and Peace to you!

This season is about giving THANKS. What are you thankful for?

How will you use what God has given you to join in the fulfilling of God's purpose?

It is a joy to be a partner in ministry as we continue to live out the promises of our baptism, to live out the call that God has planned for us individually and as a church together.

We are making a difference; I give thanks for all that we are able to do together.

An email is coming with more information you may also find this information on the ,the synod website at www.wisynod.org

I would like to ask that you share the Racial Justice Vision Trip (Jan. 31 to Feb 7th) with your congregation. We are still taking travelers until the End of Dec. I will be leading the trip this year. I struggle with the words to tell the impact that this trip has had on me and my family. We have information on the website and you can always share my number with those that would be interested in more information.

Everyone has something to give and every act of generosity counts
